Vacation Well

DISCOVER Naples

Sophisticated, Beach-Casual Vibe

The prettiest seaside city on the Gulf of Mexico compels one to slow down, breathe deeply and relax. Naples is polished and sophisticated, with wonderful performance halls, art galleries and shops, and exceptional cuisine by local and internationally acclaimed chefs. It exudes romance for couples; it's a mecca for golfers and sports enthusiasts, and its sandy beaches are among the most beautiful in the world. Naples wows families with several state-of-the-art nature centers, a children's museum, an accredited zoo, an award-winning botanical garden and many more indoor and outdoor attractions. Old Naples is a dream for end-to-end strolling, and for exploring the tree-lined residential side streets.

MAY WE SUGGEST

BY DAY: Shop. Soak up some sun. Admire the mansions in the beautiful neighborhoods between Naples Pier and Naples Bay.

BY NIGHT: See a show. Enjoy twinkling fairy-lighted ambiance at a sidewalk cafe on 5th Avenue South or Third Street South.

DISCOVER Marco Island

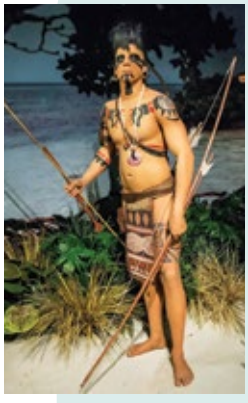
The Largest of the Ten Thousand Islands

The first glimpse of this famous resort island from atop the S.S. Jolley Bridge is a breathtaking vista of aquamarine waters populated with dolphins, yachts, sailboats and fishing skiffs skirting the lush green mangrove islands. On the other side of the Marco River are shopping enclaves, restaurants, new resorts and historic hotels, and marinas replete with fishing, boating and yachting, watersports and adventure outfitters. A jewel in the island's crown is Tigertail Beach Park, one the region's best birdwatching destinations.



MAY WE SUGGEST

BY DAY: See the priceless Key Marco Cat sculpture, and life-size replicas of the vanished Calusa civilization at the Marco Island Historical Museum.

BY NIGHT: Cruise into the sunset aboard the Marco Island Princess.

DISCOVER Ava Maria

A University Town Surrounded by Nature

While Ave Maria University is the heart of this master-planned town growing on the outskirts of Naples, this faith-based community is most famous for the Ave Maria Oratory.

MAY WE SUGGEST

Take an Orange Jeep Eco-safari, or a self-guided tour of the dramatic Frank Lloyd Wright-inspired oratory. Sip a cold one at Oil Well Craft Beer, named Best Beer Bar in Florida by CraftBeer.com.

DISCOVER Everglades City

Stone Crab Capital of the World

Everglades City and its sister community on Chokoloskee Island are sometimes called Florida's Last Frontier. Everglades City hosts the western entrance to the saltwater part of Everglades National Park and the Ten Thousand Islands. With authentic seafood shacks, stone crab fishing vessels, and renowned fishing and adventure guides, this picturesque Old Florida outpost still embodies the character of its wild and colorful history. Skirting the 1.5 million-acre Everglades National Park are Big Cypress National Preserve and Fakahatchee Strand Preserve State Park, known as the Amazon of America. Luxury is not in the Everglades vocabulary, but "adventure of a lifetime" certainly is.

MAY WE SUGGEST

BY DAY: Kayak through shadowy mangrove tunnels, fly across wet grasslands on a wild airboat ride or join swamp walkers in the watery Fakahatchee Strand in search of rare orchids. Visit Smallwood's Store, an authentic (and possibly haunted) Indian trading post on Chokoloskee Island.

BY NIGHT: In winter months, go stargazing with astronomers in Big Cypress National Preserve.

DISCOVER Immokalee

Ranchland, Preserves and a Casino

The farmlands in Immokalee supply much of the nation's tomatoes. Vast natural forests, wetlands and prairies include the largest old growth bald cypress forest on the continent; yet just minutes away, the Seminole Casino Hotel Immokalee vibrates 24/7 with high-stakes gaming and high-energy entertainment.

MAY WE SUGGEST

BY DAY: Ramble along the boardwalk at Audubon's Corkscrew Swamp Sanctuary; visit the Pioneer Museum at Roberts Ranch; take an exhilarating airboat ride through alligator habitats on Lake Trafford.

BY NIGHT: Rock the casino vibe. Stay the night at the Seminole Casino Hotel Immokalee.

WHAT IS "SEASON"?

It's those gala-filled, artful and musical social months between early November and the spring holidays when seasonal residents return to their Southwest Florida homes. It's known as peak season for a reason—the local population increases by one-third and hotels are busy with guests seeking a warm winter escape. The pace is more relaxed from May through October with tempting specials offered by hotels, shops, attractions and restaurants. Catch the free SummerJazz on the Gulf concerts at The Naples Beach Hotel & Golf Club from June through September, the Great Dock Canoe Race, the Stone Crab Festival—and, of course, the spectacular July 4th fireworks show.

10 things to know about getting around the Paradise Coast

1. U.S. Highway 41 runs north to south through Southwest Florida. It's also called The Tamiami Trail (Tampa-to-Miami, get it?). From North Naples to Central Avenue, it's Tamiami Trail North, or U.S. 41 North. South of Central Avenue, it's Tamiami Trail South/U.S. 41 South/9th Street North. At Naples Bay it curves east toward Marco Island and Everglades City and becomes U.S. 41 East, or the East Trail.

2. Old Naples streets are north/south. Avenues are east/west, ending at the beach. There's no 1st Street; it's called Gulf Shore Blvd.

3. Beach parking has a charge and is most abundant at the Naples Pier, Lowdermilk Beach Park and the Vanderbilt Beach parking garage. Downtown Naples has two large free parking garages.

4. Many Naples hotels not directly on the beach offer free shuttle service.

5. Ride Slidr offers "free" rides in downtown Naples. Be sure to tip your driver. RideSlidr.com.

6. The free CAT Beach Bus gets beachgoers from the parking lot at Conner Park to Delnor-Wiggins Pass State Park for several months during the busy winter season. GoCATBus.com.

7. The narrated Naples Trolley Tour is a charming way to learn fun trivia while getting around between major hotels, beaches, attractions and shopping districts. NaplesTrolleyTours.com.

8. Naples Bay Water Shuttle transports shoppers and diners between Naples City Dock, Bayfront and Tin City for a $10 fee that's good all day. NaplesBayWaterShuttle.com.

9. Florida State Road 951 (Collier Boulevard) runs all the way through Marco Island. At the north end, it's North Collier Blvd, and at the south end it's South Collier Blvd.

10. After Everglades City, cross the bridge and go deeper! An eight-minute scenic drive south gets you to Smallwood's historic trading post, adventure and fishing guides, and the popular must-try authentic Cuban Havana Café open during the winter months.

Age-friendly environments for toddlers to teens. Cmon.org

ROOKERY BAY

There's something for everyone from toddlers to grandparents in the Environmental Learning Center, where guests can meet marine biologists, see skulls and bones from all kinds of wildlife, see live horseshoe crabs and other creatures in the big interactive aquarium, and more. PUPPY LOVE

We adore our fur buddies here on the Paradise Coast. Check out just a few of the many ways we show it!

DOG-FRIENDLY BEACH While other city and county beaches are off limits, there's plenty of running, swimming and sniffing room with eight miles of beach on Keewaydin Island, just a short boat ride from Naples or Marco Island. Hop aboard the dog-friendly Hemingway Water Shuttle at Rose Marina on Marco Island for drop-off and pick-up service. A friendly, furry "first mate" named Riley often comes along to help you spot the dolphins.

RETAIL THERAPY Window-shopping with pampered pooches requires frequent refreshment. Some shopkeepers happily provide healthy treats. Most restaurants in shopping districts provide pet water bowls at their sidewalk tables.

DOGGIE SPA It's true, you can even book your best furry friend for a spa day at Shear Luxury Pet Styling.

CAFÉ SOCIETY It's so chic for well-behaved pets to "see and be seen" at outdoor cafes in Naples, Marco Island and Everglades City.

A PRIVATE GARDEN GATE Dogs on-leash have their own private entrance on special days at Naples Botanical Garden, and they get treats, too.

CANINE PARADES Mark your calendar for the Pets on Third Parade and Woofstock at Mercato in January and Marco Island's Holiday Pets on Parade in December.

CENTRAL BARK Large and small dogs have separate off-leash playgrounds in this state-of-the-art downtown Naples dog park.

PET FRIENDLY HOTELS Your pet is very welcome with advance booking at The Ritz-Carlton Golf Resort, Naples, Staybridge Suites, La Quinta by Wyndham hotels, Red Roof Plus & Suites, the charming Boat House Motel on Marco Island and more.

EXPLORE BEACHES

What colors will the beach show us today? At dawn, sand, sea and sky are tinged with the soft pink of a tropical sunrise. At mid-day, the water may be clear turquoise revealing a white sandbar below, or a smooth-as-glass mirror, reflecting blue skies and fluffy white clouds. By late afternoon the silvery sea sparkles like a blanket of diamonds. Moments after the sun melts soundlessly into the horizon, Mother Nature often paints the sky in her most brilliant hues of purple, orange and gold. Each day brings a new color palette, just as each beach along our 30-mile coastline has its own personality. From romantic enclaves to family-friendly beach parks dotted with colorful umbrellas, complete with food, facilities and beach rentals, to perfect spots for yoga and meditation, there's a beach for every mood.

PLAY ON THE WATER

Make a splash...kick up some sea spray...land a trophy fish. Dive to the depths...soar overhead...glide silently through the estuaries. Your choices are endless from the sparkling waters of the Gulf of Mexico to the vast primeval ecosystems of the Everglades.

Fishing

According to Ernest Hemingway, nothing is more exhilarating than a moment shared only by you and a fish. Here on Florida's Paradise Coast, everyone from the most seasoned angler to the youngest first-timer can set up that moment in an exciting variety of ways. A&B Charters offers private offshore fishing trips aboard the luxury 40-foot Sea Hawk, while Chokoloskee Charters will take you kayak fishing through the estuaries and shallow water flats of the Ten Thousand Islands. Do you dream of a shark-fishing expedition? Call Shark Chaser Charters. For fishing on a party boat, try Dalis Fishing Charters or Pure Florida. For private family fishing lessons, check out Captain Rapps in Everglades City or Captain Mike Bailey at Ms. B. Haven in Naples. Never been spearfishing? Now's your chance! Captain Bill is the spearfishing, fishing and scuba diving expert at Offshore Naples. Dive options range from five to 60 miles offshore. See many more choices at ParadiseCoast.com.

Kiteboarding

As a dramatic spectator sport or a hands-on experience of a lifetime, enjoy the exhilaration of kiteboarding. Watch the heart-pounding high jumps, flips and rolls performed by some of Naples' top kiteboarders when they gather on the shore just north of the Naples Pier, and then maybe sign up for a lesson with Windstalker's at one of several regional beaches.

Sightseeing Cruises

Whether by yacht, catamaran, pontoon boat -- or yes, even a pirate ship, a narrated sightseeing cruise makes a perfect first experience on the Paradise Coast. In Naples, try a tall-masted catamaran like Sweet Liberty or the luxurious new Miss Naples or Naples Princess. On Marco Island, Cool Beans Cruises and Marco Princess are favorites.

Other fabulous options include the double decker Double Sunshine at Tin City, and for something really different, little buccaneers and their families adore the interactive pirate adventure aboard Marco Island's Black Pearl, complete with cannon fire and treasures. These and other sightseeing boats offer a variety of options from morning to sunset, from sail-only to shelling and themed cruises. Some also offer dining.

Boat Rentals and Charters

If you prefer to pilot your own sightseeing vessel, rent a pontoon or a deck boat for a half or full day at Port O Call Marina, Naples Bay Resort & Marina, Pure Florida or Extreme Family Fun Spot in Naples and Rose Marina on Marco Island. At Naples City Dock, Sailboats Unlimited offers both bareboat and crewed charters aboard Danmark or Betelgeuse III. Or, go glam to the max with Naples Nantucket Yacht Group, whose charter fleet includes a 105' yacht that sleeps eight.

Paddling

For the closest and quietest view of the water and its inhabitants, from manatees and dolphins to magnificent sea birds, grab your paddle and your sense of wonder to peacefully navigate the Gulf of Mexico coastline, the beautiful Gordon or Marco Rivers, or through lush mangrove tunnels in the Ten Thousand Islands. Follow Paradise Coast Kayak Tours guide Mike Devlin into the twisted lagoons of the Cocohatchee River, or ease along the shallows on a stand-up paddleboard at Marco Island's Tigertail Beach. For a true centuries-old native experience, join 5th generation Gladesman Jack Shealy at Everglades Adventure Tours on a handcrafted pole boat. Kayak, canoe and paddleboard launches abound throughout the region, and rentals are available on several beaches. Check out Naples Beach Watersports, Marco Island Watersports or Cabana Dan's. Some, like Naples Kayak Company, deliver to a choice of locations.

Diving and Snorkeling

The largest complex of artificial reefs in the Western Hemisphere -- more than 18,000 tons of them -- lies just off Florida's Paradise Coast! One reef is even shaped like a loggerhead sea turtle. Check out SCUBAdventures, Scuba Outfitters (both of Naples) or Scuba Marco for classes, equipment and dives. More details and GPS coordinates at ParadiseCoast.com/Articles/Paradise_Reef.

Jet Skiing

Whether your style is wet and wild or gentle and serene, your Jet Ski or WaveRunner is waiting. Explore on your own with a rental from Pure Florida, Naples Jet Ski Rental or one of the many other beachfront or marina-based rental companies. For a combination of speed and eco-sensitive wildlife encounter, check out the guided tours at Captain Ron's Awesome Everglades Adventures, Avi's Watersports or Marco Island Watersports.

Eco-Touring

If comfort is your eco-tour priority, tour Rookery Bay aboard the pontoon boat, Good Fortune II, at the Conservancy of Southwest Florida which launches on several Marco Island beaches. You can track and help catalog Atlantic bottlenose dolphins in comfort aboard the Dolphin Explorer, or if manatee sighting is your goal, go straight to Manatee Eco-Tours at Port of the Islands Marina.

Shelling

Who doesn't love to find a sun-bleached sand dollar or the fossil of an ancient whelk shell? Who wouldn't thrill to the discovery of a colorful scallop shell, a tiny kitten's paw, or even the former home of a baby horse conch? Many sightseeing and eco-tour operators stop at island beaches for shelling time -- and some, like Treasure Seekers Shell Tours and Marco Island Boat Tours, specialize in the more adventurous sport of shelling in the mangrove shallows.

Swamp Trekking

The best modes of transport through wet grasslands, swamps and inland lakes are the airboat, the knobby-wheeled swamp buggy, and of course your oldest pair of sneakers or hiking shoes. Contact Corey Billie's Airboat Rides, C&G Big Cypress Swamp Buggy Tours, or get a combo deal from Captain Jack's or Wooten's that includes both options...plus, if you like, a free baby alligator hug! Among the region's favorite swamp treks is wading through the cypress and pond apple sloughs with park biologist Mike Owen at Fakahatchee Strand Preserve State Park.

PLAY ON LAND

Beyond the stunning white sand beaches, spectacular waterways, lush golf courses, wildlife-rich nature preserves and world renowned ecosystems, what more could possibly delight visitors here? Oh, so many things! May we suggest...

See Some Wildlife

While they can't predict when a cute raccoon, an alligator, or even a baby bear may appear on the trail ahead, our local guides know their habitats and habits, so do take a guided nature walk for the best chance of a sighting in one of many wildlife-rich parks and preserves.

For guaranteed close-up encounters, visit the nationally accredited Naples Zoo at Caribbean Gardens, where several babies have recently been born. Fenced habitats and huge glass viewing walls allow face-to-face encounters with mighty cats, bears, reptiles and more. Meet the keepers, learn about animal and plant conservation programs, take the Primate Expedition cruise, and even hand-feed the giraffes.

Watch A Show

Bravo to the star-quality performances that grace the stages in Naples and on Marco Island. See the world's most beloved operas at Opera Naples, Artis—Naples, Gulfshore Opera. Artis—Naples also brings world-renowned theatre, dance and musical productions to its stage. Get tickets to a performance by The Naples Players, ranked among America's top community theatre companies. For something extra special, book a table for their new On The Stage Dinner Series. And there's more! The thespians of The Marco Players perform in an intimate black-box theater and there's a full calendar of excellent live theater at the Gulfshore Playhouse and TheatreZone.

Meet Some Natives

Learn about the descendants of the first pioneers and cattlemen of Immokalee at the Pioneer Museum at Roberts Ranch. At the Museum of The Everglades, meet the rugged Gladesmen, the visionary and his men who carved the Tamiami Trail from mosquito-infested swamps, and the woman who spearheaded the saving of the Everglades. At Ah-Tah-Thi-Ki Seminole Indian Museum, you will hear the stories, watch the ceremonies, and admire the art, textiles and jewelry of the descendants of the warriors of the only tribe that was never defeated by the United States Army.

Enter The Past

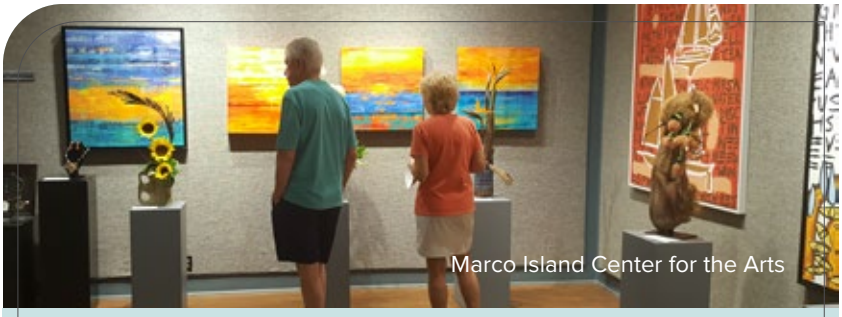
Immerse in the ancient Calusa Indian civilization and see the artifacts they left behind in the newly expanded Marco Island Historical Museum, where the priceless centuries-old Key Marco Cat (found on the island in 1896) is on loan from the Smithsonian Institution. See the world's fastest vintage racecars at Revs Institute in Naples. Visit the Smallwood's Store, the original pioneer/Indian trading post that was the real-life setting of the famous novel, Killing Mister Watson.

Peruse The Gardens

Stroll through diverse tropical, subtropical and wilderness ecosystems in the world class Naples Botanical Garden. Be mesmerized by stunning orchids, water lilies, lotus blossoms, romantic flowering vines and more. Be wowed by the ever-changing art installations, seasonal evenings, and themed concerts on the Performance Lawn. Try yoga among the flowers, gardening classes, birding tours and more, all within minutes of downtown Naples. Bring the family to experience the magnificent tree house and many other wonders in the Children's Garden.

Go For A Ride

Rent a bicycle at Naples Cyclery, near Vanderbilt Beach, or Island Bike Shop on Marco Island. Join Naples Bicycle Tour for a charmingly narrated ride through lovely neighborhoods, along the coastal historic districts and beyond. A must-do bike path is the Gordon River Greenway, which meanders from the Naples Zoo and the Conservancy of Southwest Florida to Downtown Naples. For a fun tour through historic Old Naples between the Gordon River and the Naples Pier on a different kind of wheels, try Trike Tours USA or Segway of Naples.



Marco Island Center for the Arts

Explore The Arts

From the impressive permanent collections and traveling exhibits at The Baker Museum at Artis—Naples to famed Everglades photographer Clyde Butcher's rustic gallery deep in the Everglades, fine art galleries and artist's studios abound on the Paradise Coast. Linger in the galleries at Marco Island Center for the Arts and Naples Art. Save one day for strolling the galleries along Naples' 5th Avenue South and Third Street South, and another day to visit the Naples Art District, featuring the studios and galleries of more than 60 painters, ceramicists, sculptors, jewelers and photographers.

Saddle Up

The Picayune Strand State Forest offers horse trails through native Old Florida vegetation. Go for the 22-mile trail within the State Forest, or take a gentle trail ride with M&H Stables, just outside the Picayune, located 12 miles east of downtown Naples.

Roll The Dice

When you're feeling lucky, high stakes table games and slots offer plenty of opportunities to hit it big at the Seminole Casino Hotel Immokalee. There's blackjack, poker and baccarat action and more, as well as a calendar packed with top-rate entertainment, from sidesplitting comedy to seriously rocking concerts. Get the full experience: play until the wee hours then sleep over at the onsite hotel.

Hit Some Balls

The beautifully landscaped Arthur L. Allen Tennis Center has 12 state-of-the-art Hydro-Grid lighted Har-Tru courts, shady chickee structures, cold-water fountains, and a fully stocked tennis shop. It's set in lovely Cambier Park near theaters, shops, galleries and restaurants. Find more courts at the Pelican Bay Community Park and Veterans Community Park.

Do Some Shooting

Naturally, you should never be without your camera here on the Paradise Coast, but in this case we suggest you try the shooting sport of trap, skeet, and sporting clays. The Gulf Coast Clays shooting range, at Port of the Islands between Naples and the Everglades, has a scenic, automated 15-station sporting clays course, three trap fields and two skeet fields.

Practice Pickleball

It's the fastest growing paddle sport in the country, and Naples is an epicenter of Pickleball action. The Minto U.S. OPEN Pickleball Championships are held each spring at East Naples Community Park and Veterans Park. Other places to practice your game include Naples' Fleischmann Park and the City of Marco Island Racquet Center.

Fishing boats and airboats, island music, quirky characters, old wooden docks and a few fancier ones rock the nautical vibe from Naples to Everglades City. In Everglades City, you'll find the real thing at Camellia Street Grill, Triad Seafood and City Seafood.

On Marco, it's an all-day party at Snook Inn, and it doesn't get any quirkier than Stan's Idle Hour Restaurant & Bar, a favorite of everyone from visiting TV personalities to the motorcycle crowd. Near Vanderbilt Beach, get a pitcher of beer to go with your seafood and burgers at an old local favorite, Buzz's Lighthouse.

Happy hour seafood deals are great at The Dock at Crayton Cove, and in Tin City, two great choices to dine right on the docks are Riverwalk and Pinchers.

On the Isles of Capri, discover typical Old Florida fare at Pelican Bend, and while the water is more in the Big Cypress wetlands than on a dock, Joanie's Blue Crab Café, with fresh seafood platters and live 'Glades music is a must-do. In contrast, a former fishing shack on the Gordon River has been transformed into the charming Three60 Market, offering generous portions of gourmet fare from breakfast to dinner, plus prepared takeaways and an exceptional wine shop.
